Senior SAP ABAP Software Engineer (MM) ((m/w/d)

Job Description

- Job Responsibilities Senior SAP ABAP Software Engineer (MM) How this role will make an impact: The developer role will enhance, improve, and develop on the SAP MM platform. As part of the Application Development Team, this person will collaborate with Solution Managers, Architects and Developers to produce high quality solutions to support PetSmart business. The Developer will also be responsible for communicating and mentoring other members of the team. The developer will execute the build, test and deployment of the solution to ensure it meets design specification and ultimately the business requirements. Your goals and responsibilities will include: SAP technical expert to develop code/manage/configure MM. Creates/oversees completion of technical configuration and development specifications Works closely with Application Analysts to identify gaps between business requirements, functional design and standard SAP application capabilities and negotiates resolution Develops solutions with an understanding of large volume processes/processing and a deep understanding of performance impacts, best practices and approaches Works in collaboration with Application analysts and cross functional IS and business teams to design and develop solutions based on business requirements Conducts Unit testing and supports all QA and UAT efforts through application readiness, preparation of test environments, creation of data and user profiles, etc Works directly with other SAP developers on requirements, design and code reviews Leverages latest coding standards (Object oriented) and techniques in SAP Development but also be able to change/read existing ABAP code. Creates technical design for new projects and enhancements to existing projects within SAP IS Retail Solution Deploys software changes, regulatory updates, and change requests with appropriate test and back out plans for highly complex changes Work on multiple concurrent projects, meet business expectations, influence outcomes and maintain stated timelines Strong experience in working with Articles, Price and Purchase orders preferred in the SAP Retail environment. What you'll bring to the table: BA/BS Degree in IT, MIS or business related functional disciple. Code Development in SAP experience, preferably in the MM and merchandising areas.

Requirements

- Minimum 9 years hands-on experience on SAP Development using ABAP Minimum 3 years hands-on experience in procedural ABAP or OO ABAP as well as development in WebDynpro applications Expert level experience in implementing projects in SAP by leveraging one or more of the following: Middleware Integration with SAP ABAP Workbench ABAP Objects ALE, BAPI, BADI's, IDOCs, BDC and ALV Programming RFC calls EDI integrations in the full System Development Life Cycle Expert level experience using SAP ABAP programming tools including Report and Transaction creation, Interfaces, Enhancements, Conversion Programs, SAPscript, and SmartForms, Screen Painter BDC, LSMW, enhancing User Exits Ability to address short term tactical requirements without losing site of the longer range strategic direction Strong functional business process expertise in IS SAP Retail About our IT team: We're growing at a faster pace than we ever have before, investing heavily in cutting-edge technology and, more importantly, our people. Our PetSmart IT team isn't just its own department, they are valued business partners to every area of our company. At every level, our IT associates are empowered to come up with innovative ideas that have strategic impacts to the business. You'll take pride in the work that you do and the "why" behind it all—for the love of pets.

Why you'll love it here: Our home office offers outstanding amenities in a fun and rewarding workplace including: Pet friendly environment, bring your pets to work! A work-life balance and family events such as movie nights, art events and holiday festivals "Top Dog" gym with equipment, fitness classes, massage therapists and personal trainers "Sit & Stay" Café serving fresh breakfast and lunch options Starbucks cart—productivity at its finest! "Lil' Paws" learning center and onsite daycare facility Volunteer events with PetSmart Charities Submit Resume

Location

- Bonn, Köln, Stuttgart, Freiburg und Berlin